Summary

I am a multitasking, result-driven and dynamic professional with international exposure and a proven record of generating and building professional relationships and institutional partnerships, managing projects from concept to completion, designing student counselling, career guidance, academic advising and, parents and alumni engagement strategies, developing institutional and departmental policies, planning training and skills development programs, hiring team members, handling students services, leading national and international admission and scholarship recruitments and coaching individuals to success.

My skill set encompasses the ability to build cross-functional teams, strategic planning, networking, effective communication, community mobilization, recourse management and making sound organizational decisions. I am culturally responsive, socially adaptable and fine to work independently and in collaboration with others. I am always eager to bring innovation, empathy and congeniality to my workplace. My core values revolve around embracing diversity, promoting inclusivity, upholding equity and meritocracy, and ensuring fairness in all my personal and professional interactions and assignments. Furthermore, I have a longstanding dedication to serving society, particularly marginalized and underprivileged communities, by generously and voluntarily contributing my time, knowledge and expertise.

As an emerging leader, I recognize the importance of empowering others, fostering open dialogue, embracing constructive criticism, grooming future leaders, advocating for open-door policies, and promoting a culture of positivity and a sense of belonging within teams. In all my endeavours, I strive to leave a lasting impact through my performance, sense of accountability, effective coordination, and strong team-building and leadership skills.

Currently, I am working as the Head of the Department of Student Affairs & Global Engagement in a multinational educational endeavour (Pak-Turk Maarif International Schools and Colleges) of the Turkish Government in Pakistan. I am mandated to work for the social, emotional, psychological, career, academic, personal and professional development and well-being of over 13000 students in 27 campuses in 10 major cities across the country and to connect them with admission, scholarship, internship, job, and skills development programs and opportunities within the country and abroad. I am leading a team of over 20 dedicated Student Counselling Officers.
